

Looking beyond cars and trucks...

Especially around here...

Meet George Lusby, Scott County Judge-Executive, Community Servant for 32 years, lifelong Georgetown resident

"I love to fish and people will tell you, I have a lot of great stories. But as I reflect on many years of serving this community, Toyota often comes to mind. When they first arrived, Toyota didn't come to town and try to dictate. Instead, they partnered with us, shared ideas and helped us find solutions. We can see the results - improved roads, new bridges, water and sewer lines. The overall quality of life is better in Scott County. That told us a lot about our new neighbor. They were definitely looking to do more than just build cars."
